

Not as good as you thought

A comment that I would make is this: you are quite likely to come across things in your situation at home that you would now say, “Oh, they are not as good as I thought they should be”. Please do not beat yourself up about that – it is ok! It is not about being ‘wrong’, or ‘good’, or ‘bad’ or any of those sorts of words. The only thing that matters is, ‘Where are you going from here on in?’.

If you have something that you don’t like, the only question to ask is, “How are we going to change this to something that we do like, and we do want?”.

So please, do not feel bad if you have a situation on your land (or anywhere) that is not as you would like it at the moment. Don’t beat yourself up! Whatever caused that situation is now water under the bridge, and the only thing that you can do is to look forward, and now make decisions towards what you do want or desire, and take actions that will sustain you forever.
